DEDICATION

RALPH E. WILLIAMS, D.D.

Dr. Ralph E. Williams, Chairman of the Lee College Board of Directors since 1968, has given a lifetime of attention and support to Lee College. An alumnus of Lee, he has served with distinction in many areas of church administration.

In appreciation for his consistent efforts to upgrade and advance his alma mater, we dedicate this edition of the VINDAGUA to him.

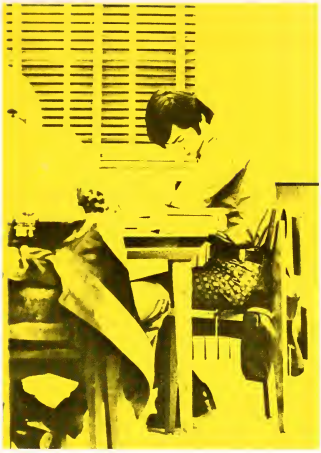
Lee College is...



...a different kind of school

A beautiful campus in a gracious Southern town

Closely surrounded by the natural beauty of the Southern Appalachian Mountains.

Christian companions are easily found

85

In an "environment" of social and service opportunity

Uniquely blended with the highest of academic standards

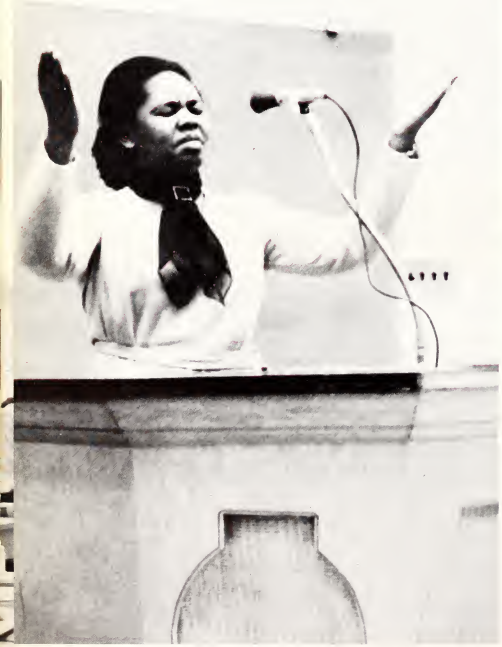
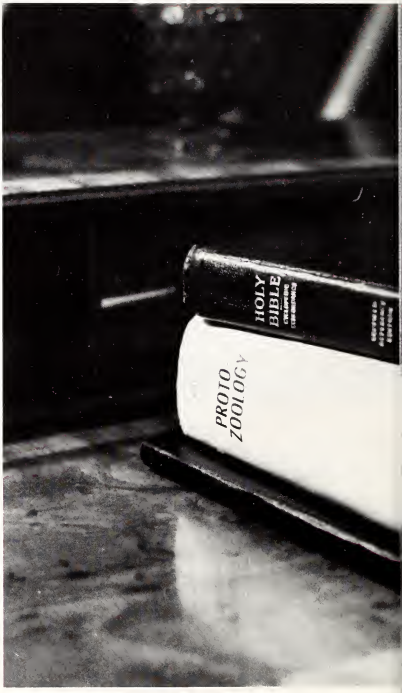
With purpose and direction...





...for the glory of God

"Whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God."
1 Corinthians 10:31

Campus Life

The Family

Our lives at Lee revolve around our souls, . .

The Psalmist David once that thou art mindful of him?"

Are we only individuals of soul; or are we more? Are one another; forming a family, family, brothers and sisters all

. . . our minds, . . .

of Man

asked of God, "What is man
(Psalm 8)

flesh and blood, spirit and we not persons in need of an unbelievably large

. . . all working to form a diversity of relationships.

. . . and our bodies, . . .

Our bodies are important and they need fuel

This bite is for Mommy . . .

. . . and this one is for Daddy.

Carol Bennick and Greg Turner see the cafeteria as an important part of campus life.

Coxton, Rathbone, Conn, and Sells pause to refuel while working on their latest hit single, the 1976 VINDAGUA.

Randy Hamilton takes eating very seriously. Especially when it means winning the Derby Day trophy for TACT.

Mary Roberts makes sure Chuck Smith has enough to eat.

Everyone needs to eat sometime.

Some people just eat a little too much. Derby Day proved this.

We played sports to build healthy bodies

Passing football was a popular pasttime among friends.

Bill Higginbotham, Wayne Chambers, and Hubert Black get in a game of golf during Homecoming week.

Terry Ezell "hot dogs it" down the slope.

Alpha Gamma Chi sponsored an arm-wrestling contest in the Fall.

Todd Cannon didn't feel like walking to class today.

Rotaract's Derby Day allowed for teamwork in competition.

Dr. Heather E. Conn tries to imitate her father's classroom behavior.

Mental prowess is necessary for performing with such expertise as the Lee Singers and the Chattanooga Symphony Orchestra.

Bob Wentz exercises his mind through auditory stimuli.

Robert Perry uses his store of knowledge for conducting research.

Faculty members such as Ruth Crawford serve to help students accumulate new knowledge.

All serious students at Lee are familiar with the library. Joy Molina and Joe Mango are no exception.

Our Minds:

We used them to learn.
That is what we came to Lee for.

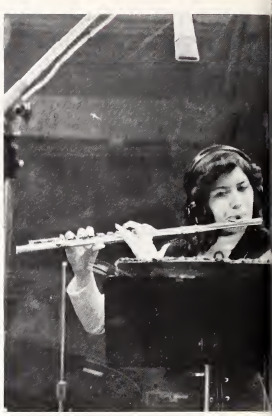
Classes were the center of academic involvement though they met outside at times.

Gary Moore enjoys studying outdoors.



Individual instruction from Dr. David Horton inspires Lenae Stewart.

Minds in gear

Art classes spurred the mind's creative nature.

Johnny Griffis uses his intellect to stimulate laughter.

Life in the dormitory includes schoolwork.

Danielle Collier's skills in art helped in staging the annual Parade of Favorites.

Members of the Ladies of Lee concentrate on musical ideas during rehearsal.

Man is a living soul

Life at Lee allows for spiritual nourishment

Lee students spread the gospel to others.

Faculty and students worshipped in college chapel at least four times a week.

Lamar Vest was the evening speaker for the Fall Convocation.

O. C. McCane delivered dynamic messages in the Fall Convocation.

Students together maintain rich spiritual lives.

Nicky Cruz blessed the student body with his personal salvation experience.

L. E. Painter spoke mornings for Spring Convocation.

Steve Brock was the evening speaker for Spring Convocation.

College faculty and administrators set spiritual examples for the student body.

Students share times of excitement with each other.

Yes, Man needs his body, mind, and soul. But,

Man is a social being.

For a bearable existence, he needs other people. At Lee College this family is most varied. Members came from all over the world. From Guatemala to South Africa, from the Philippines to Brazil; many cultures, many peoples, many individuals - yet, one family.

Even faculty members can provide companionship.

It takes lots of friends to brighten a snowless skiing trip.

Talking about Christ always brings friends together.

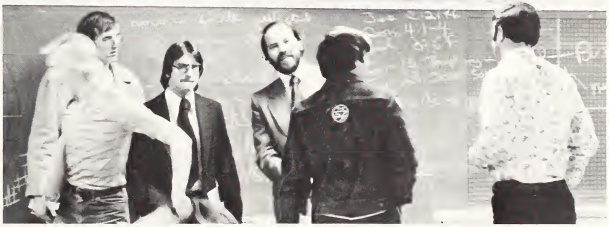
We saw our friends differently at '50s Day.

It would sure be scary on stage alone.

We need each other for casual conversation.

Mrs. Golden and Mrs. Williams run the post office and thus keep us in touch with distant frlends.

Ken Lee helped Lisa Lovinggood meet new friends by selling her pie at Alpha Gamma Chi's "Miss Pie" auction.



We even need each other in the classroom.

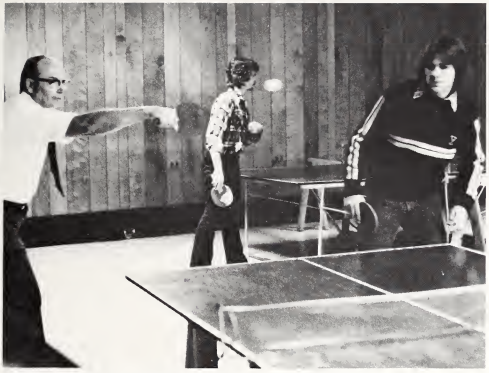
Off-campus students often eat in the Student Center.



Pastor Tull and Will Higginbotham make a good team.

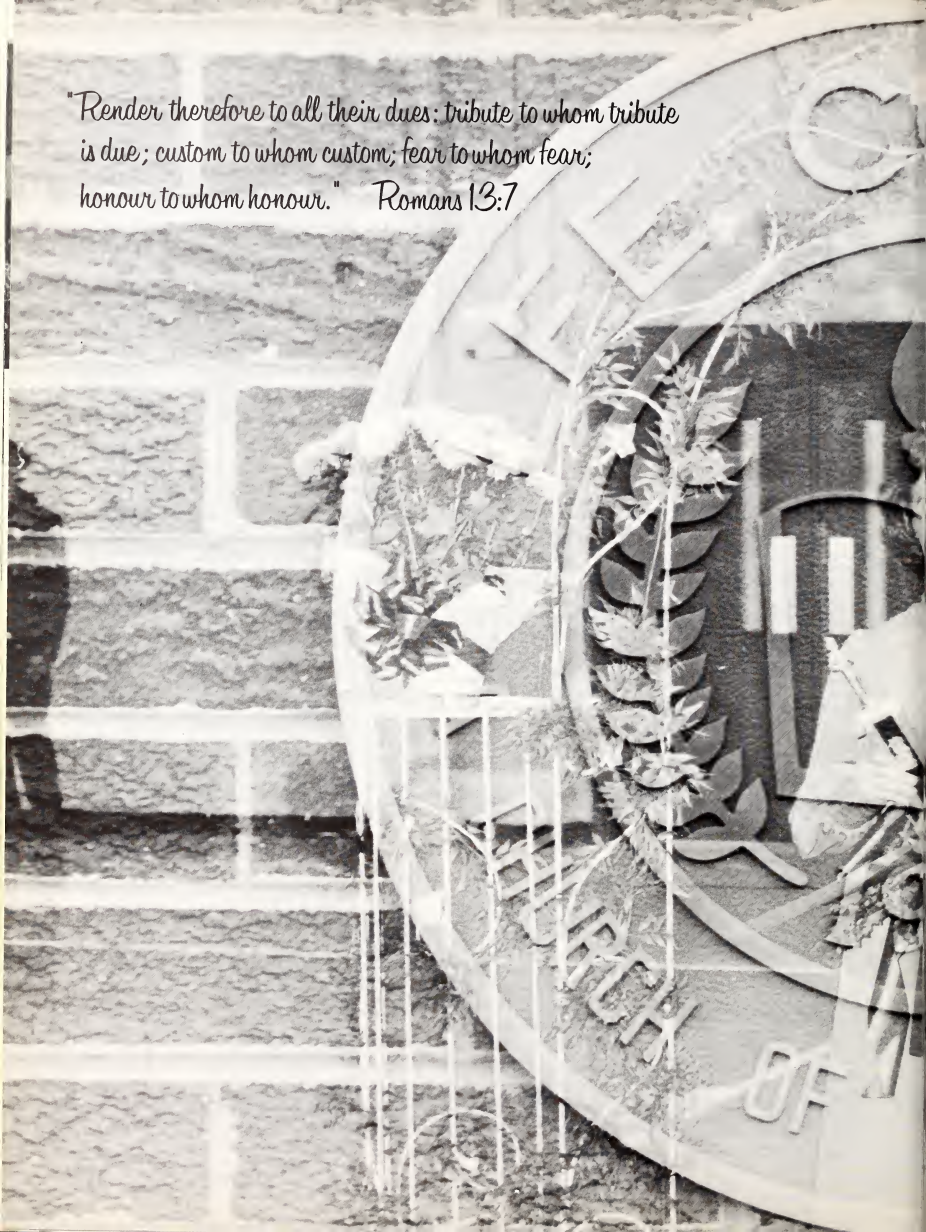
David Lauster was a "sight for sore eyes" when he returned from Chad, Africa.

Lee is involved with the community in many ways.

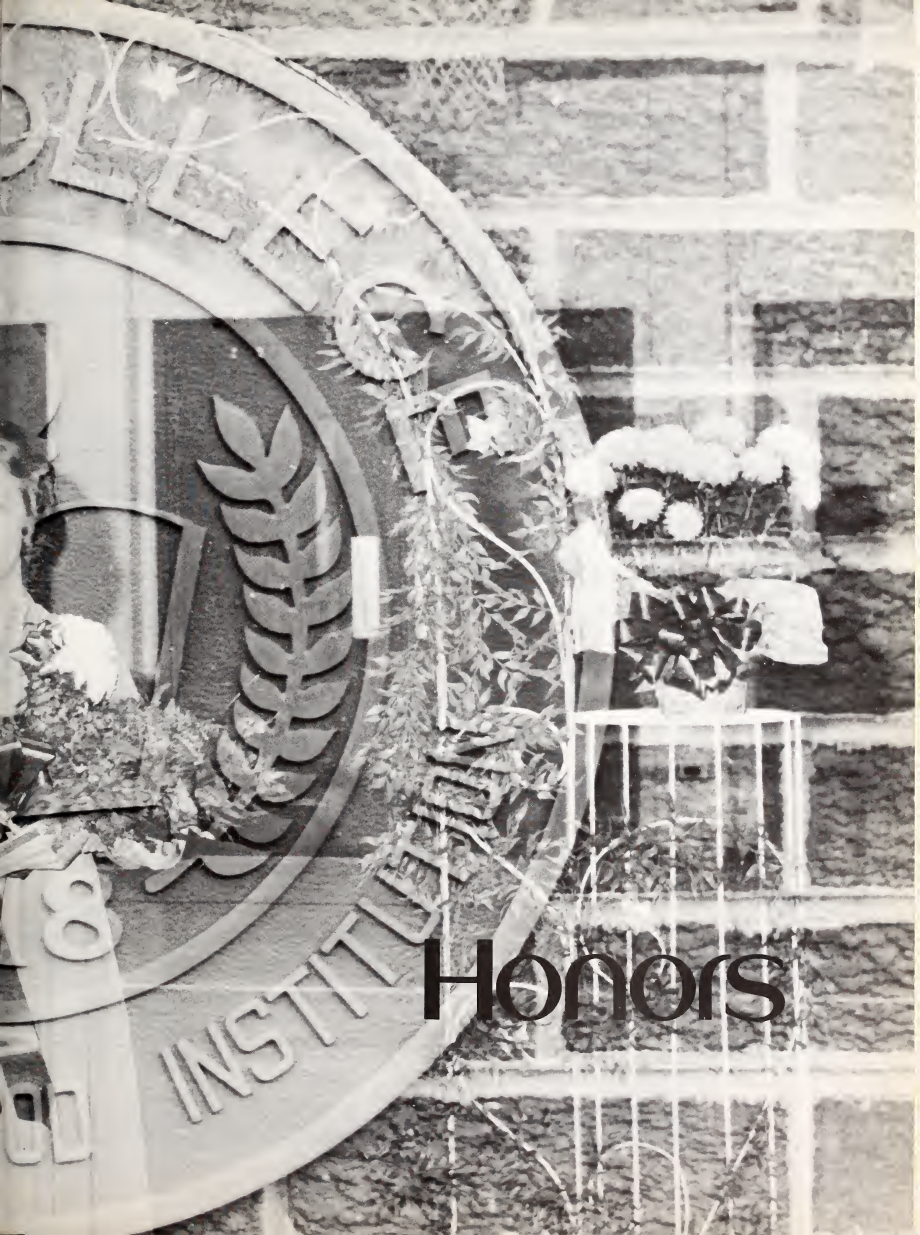
Life at Lee:

it provided strength for mind, body, soul, and meaningful relationships. But it took all of us to make it work; all members of God's family, the Family of Man.

There are many young married couples at Lee.



"Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour." Romans 13:7



Honors

Alan Dean recipient of F.J. Lee award

Originating in 1968, after the development of a four year liberal arts program, this award recognizes the most outstanding graduating Senior. Alan Dean received this honor from the college faculty.

A Chemistry Major from Cleveland, Tennessee, Alan has served as chemistry lab assistant and completed his career at Lee by receiving a $12,000 National Science Foundation grant for research with cancer in cooperation with Oak Ridge National Laboratory.

Tharp Award went to Phil Thomas

Named after past president Zeno C. Tharp, the Tharp Award is given to the Senior that is most likely to make the greatest contribution to the church. Chosen by the faculty to receive this honor, Phil exemplifies the characteristics that will enable him to succeed. A musical education major, Phil has been pianist for Lee Singers and is currently president of Alpha Chi honor society. Phil hails from Cross City, Florida.

Unique Seniors capture

Each Departmental Award is given to the student in that department who is considered the most outstanding in their major. These students are elected by the faculty of the individual departments. Names are then submitted to the Academic Council for confirmation.

While preparing to enter the graduate program at Vanderbilt University, Rick Moore still has time for enjoying life's rewarding pleasures. Rick is the recipient of the Biblical-Historical Departmental Award.

Departmental Awards

Someone has said that knowledge is power. For some, these years are marked by a thirst for that power. These people have achieved—they have been awakened to the joys of learning—they have excelled. These people, on the basis of outstanding accomplishments within their chosen field, are honored with the Departmental Award.

Congratulations go to these Seniors who have diligently worked during their academic career to maintain excellence. We hope that the bestowal of the Departmental Award will serve as an inspiration to achieve further goals in the realm of knowledge.

Devoted to the promotion of Christian Education, Randy Hamilton has served both Lee and his community by founding TACT, an organization that is interested in training Christian teachers. The Christian Education Award went to Randy.

Secondary Education Award

Roger Vaughn relates to people—he teaches school, he plays tennis and he enjoys life—characteristics that make him successful.

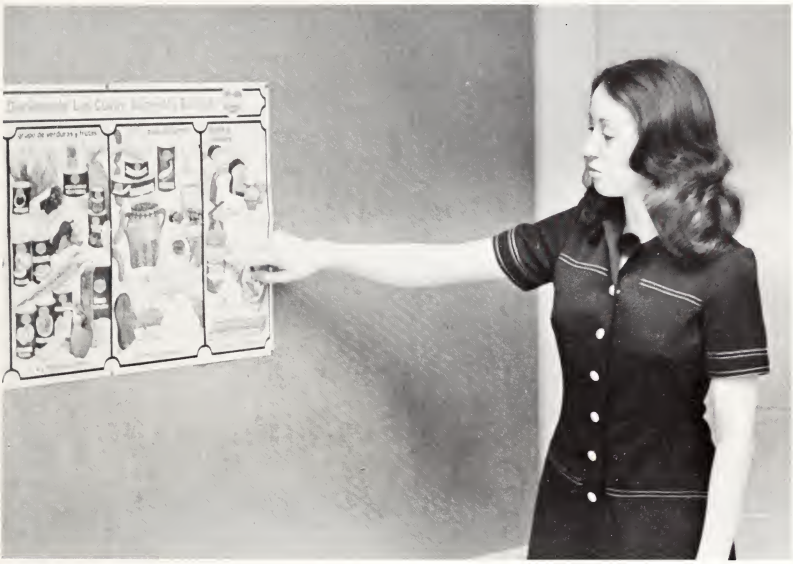
Music and Fine Arts Award

Phil Thomas is liked by his peers, he communicates not only through his music but through his personality also.

Elementary Education Award

Serving as SNEA President and working as a part-time secretary, Becky Wass also has time to maintain academic excellence.

Language Award



Mitzi Dunn speaks English. She also speaks Spanish—she is bridging barriers by sharing herself with two cultures and two people.

Susie Coleman captured the Behavorial Science Award by maintaining a high GPA.

Tony Padgett received the Business Award.

Virginia Hiesorote received the Natural Science Award.

Who's Who Among Students in Majoring in Secondary Education, Joe Golden plans a career in the teaching profession.

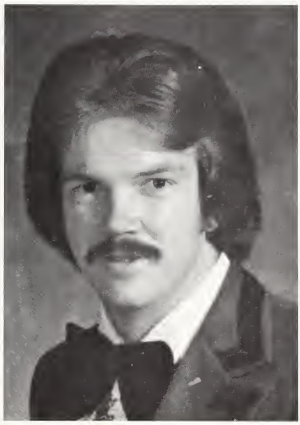
Academic excellence, contributions to campus life, and participation in all facets of college life distinguish Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities. Who's Who people are enthusiastic, they're ambitious, and they seek passionately what life has to offer.

Throughout the nation, the faculty of each college or university selects students on an enrollment-based quota. These students have given themselves to their school in service, as well as academically.

While displaying her musical ability by accompanying Ladies of Lee, Diane also exhibited her leadership qualities by serving as Delta Zeta Tau's president.

American Colleges and Universities

Only fourteen students out of the entire graduating class were selected as Who's Who recipients. To be one in such an elite group is indeed an honor. Pride may also be taken in the fact that the award is not entirely academically oriented. Unlike the Departmental Awards, Who's Who takes into consideration all facets of campus life. This includes involvement, leadership ability, dependability, and other consideration of outstanding character.



Terry Patrick, a major in Accounting, graduated with honors.

A native of England, Selwyn Arnold is a credit to the Biblical-Historical Department.

Seniors Merit

Flynn Johnson puts himself into his music while singing at an outdoor concert.

Mike O'Neal contributes his leadership abilities to campus life by serving as President of Upsilon Xi.

Representing TACT in POF for two years, serving as a representative in SGA, and singing with Lee Singers, Rene Willetts penetrated all facets of campus life.

Finding time for oneself is sometimes hard to do when maintaining a high GPA like Becky Wass.

Larry Carpenter's competent performances in class work and on the basketball court give him the distinct honor of being selected a Who's Who candidate.

Homecoming Court elected

Homecoming 1975 was viewed by thousands of visiting alumni. At halftime eight lovely young ladies were presented as the 1975 Homecoming Court. One young lady was chosen from this Court to reign as the new Homecoming Queen. Miss Sherry Pennington received this honor.

Those attending Sherry in her court included Seniors Kay Boatwright and Renee Willetts, Juniors Pam Pressley and Diane James, Sophomore Debbie Wooden, and Freshmen Kathy Suggs and Carol Bennick.

Homecoming Queen

Miss Sherry Pennington was elected by the student body of Lee College, to represent them as Homecoming Queen for the 1975-'76 school term. Sherry is a Sophomore from Gastonia, North Carolina. She is majoring in Elementary Education, and is a member of Sigma Nu Sigma. Sherry represented the Freshman class in the 1974 Homecoming Court.

From the first day of ticket sales, to curtain time and until the announcement of the winning girls, Parade of Favorites 1976 promised to be a walk down memory lane from the past to the present. Danny Murray, emcee for evening, revieved the first pageant to the last pageant. He related humorous stories and incidents in former POF's. Humor was added to the event when the "Hot Airs," a hillbilly group composed of former POF contenders, appeared in concert to the delight of the audience. To sum POF 1976 up—it was a memorable experience.

The Vindagua Staff Proudly Presented...

The curtain went up and eleven Miss POF contenders related unusual experiences in their past lives.

The evening climaxed with the announcement of the winners: Sherry Pennington, Miss Congeniality; Debbie Richardson, First Runner-Up; Diane James, Miss POF and Denise Willetts, Second Runner-Up.

Singing an aria from Carmen, Denise Willetts captured the "gypsy" in everyone's heart.

"Favorites, Now-And Then"

Performing her song professionally, Debbie Richardson sang "Breaking Up Is Hard to Do."

A popular tune, "I Write the Song" was performed by Kathleen West.

For Debbie Wooden, singing a medley of love songs expressed her deepest feelings.

Diverse Talent

Diane Willis captured the past fantasies of childhood in a delightful skit entitled "The Bar."

Introductions were made and it was time for each girl to display her special talent. A variety of talent gave the audience added enjoyment.

After the talent followed the ramp scene where the ladies were at their poised and charming best. Debbie Murray coordinated the pageant and Januth Gatlin hosted the social events.

A special thanks is extended to Walter Mauldin and "the boys in the band." Their faithfulness and hard work proved rewarding in the special effect their music provided.

in performance

Collier, Johnny Webster, and Marc Hileman, along with the Men of Rotaract, managed the stage.

A very important part of POF is the escorts. These handsome young men support their Favorite by escorting her to various events held during the week. This year's escorts were no exception. They were striking in appearance and they were debonair. They were Ron McCane, Bob Herron, Eddie Miller, Rick Moore, David Lauster, Mike McMahan, Bill Wilson, Paul Walker, Phil Newton, Danny Clark and Steve McCullar.

A patriotic monologue with a touch of the Old South was presented by Brenda Peeples.

"Dixie," "Battle Hymn of Republic," and "Yankee Doodle" arranged by Kay Boatwright, were combined to make a lovely piano solo.

Complimenting herself, Jean Hamilton performed excellently as she sang and played her French Horn in a salute to America.

Miss POF 1976

After a week of judging, and days filled with getting props and stage together, the excited favorites performed in front of family and peers. Diane James, a young lady hailing from West Memphis, Arkansas, was crowned Miss POF by Judges Beecher Hunter, Ken Rayborn, Kathy Hughes, and Kathy Simmons.

Diane, a twenty-one year old Junior, is a major in Biological Science. She plans to teach school after graduation. Diane has made many contributions to campus life through her involvement in Ladies of Lee, Delta Zeta Tau, and the Cheerleading Squad. In addition to these activities, Diane also represented her class in the Homecoming Court.

Diane served as a Viking cheerleader.

Diane participated in campus activities such as "Fifties Day."

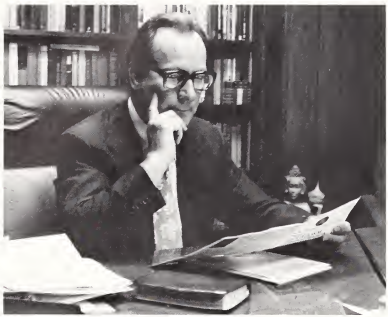
Academics



The 1975-'76 school term marked the sixth year of Dr. Charles W. Conn's administration as chief executive of Lee College.

President Conn came to Lee in 1970 from a background which uniquely prepared him for the demanding job which he presently fills. Himself an alumnus of Lee (in its B.T.S. days), Conn served as editor in chief of Church of God publications for ten years before becoming General Overseer of the denomination for the four years preceding his Lee College presidency. He is the only man in the history of the Church of God to hold all three of these prestigious church positions.

President Charles W. Conn

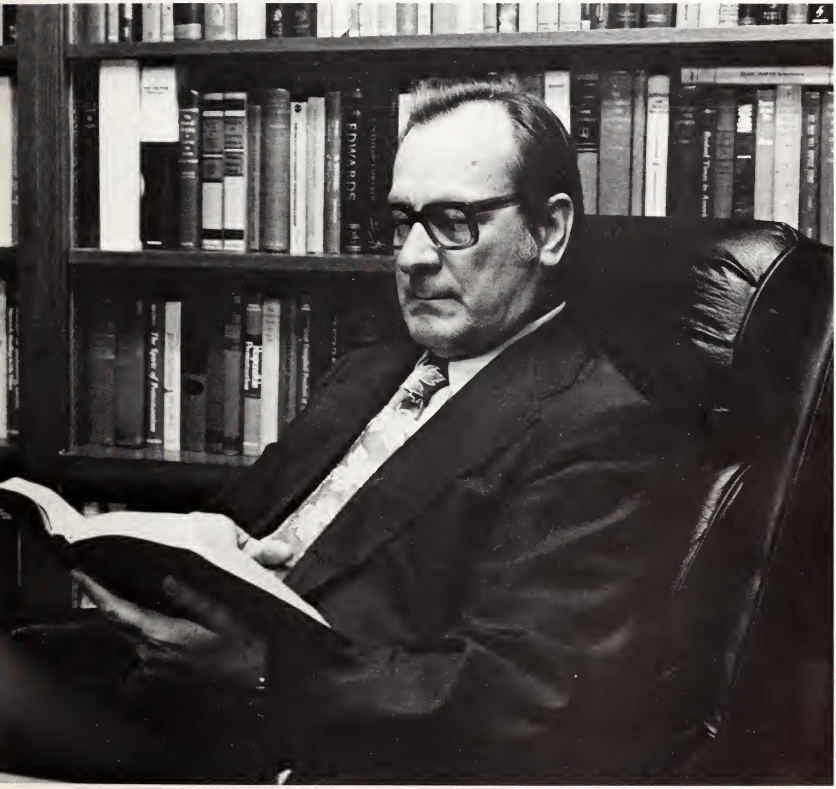
President Conn is deeply involved in all areas of the life of the school. He is likely to be seen in the library or at musical programs and athletic events as well as on the platform during Chapel services or in the offices of the Administration Building. He is a popular president with students and with faculty members, and has won the confidence of the rank and file ministers and laymen of the Church of God with his competent, strong leadership of the college.



Board of Directors

The Lee College Board of Directors meets quarterly on the Lee campus to make policy and direct the progress of the school. The Board is elected biennially by the Executive Committee of the Church of God, and has the responsibility of nominating the president, administrative officers, and faculty members of the college.

Chairman of the Board of Directors during the 1975-'76 school year is the Reverend Ralph E. Williams, state overseer of the Church of God in Florida. Reverend Williams has a record of distinguished leadership in the Church of God, and has served on the Executive Committee of the denomination.

Other board members include H. W. Babb, Garold Boatwright, Clifford V. Bridges, Louis H. Cross, Fred P. Hamilton, Bill Higginbotham, William A. Lawson, F. J. May, H. B. Ramsey, Bill Squires, and Paul L. Walker.

DR. RALPH E. WILLIAMS
Chairman of the Board

Dean of the College

Delton L. Alford, Ph.D., served his first full term as Dean of the College at Lee during the 1975-'76 school year.

Dr. Alford came to Lee as an instructor in the music department in 1962. He has served as department chairman and dean of the Division of Arts and Sciences before assuming his present post in 1975. He holds the Ph.D. degree from Florida State University and is generally regarded as the leading church musician of his denomination.

As Dean of the College, Alford directs the entire academic process at the school. He chairs the academic council, college council, and curriculum committee, plans and directs the faculty seminars which precede and follow each year's work, and supervises the work of division deans and department chairmen. He has brought a new, vigorous style and high standard of excellence to the academic leadership of Lee College.

Administrative Council

The Administrative Council is an advisory body chaired by the President of the College which considers issues and advises with the president on all matters of school policy which he brings to them, ranging from questions about the student code to consideration of the school's general financial structure.

All members of the academic council serve on the administrative council. These officers include Delton Alford (Dean of the College), Stanley Butler (Dean of Admissions and Records), and the three deans of divisions, Donald Bowdle, Jim Bilbo, and Al Hartgraves. Other members of the council are David Painter (Director of Financial Affairs), Paul Duncan (Dean of Students), and Wayne Chambers (Director of Development.)

Lee Vikings set 14-12 mark

Sam Herkley brings down an awesome rebound.

Phil Bazel stalls the ball.

The Lee College Vikings experienced many surprises in 1975. During the summer Dale Hughes, coach of the Vikings and Lee's athletic director, resigned his position to become principal of Bradley Central High School. Earl Rowan was then selected to fill the position vacated by Hughes. Rowan, who inherited a rigorous schedule as well as some fine personnel, led the team to some surprising victories over Lemoyne Owen of Memphis, a nationally recognized cage power enroute to establishing a 14-12 record. Another surprise was the loss of center Sam Herkley second semester. Yet through the leadership of Seniors Dennis Botts, Danny Moore, and Larry Carpenter the team was able to maintain a winning season.

Larry Carpenter demonstrates his nimble defensive ability.

Larry Carpenter, the most celebrated player ever to wear the maroon and white, capped off an impressive Viking career by being named to the first NCCAA All-American team. During his four years Larry averaged 18 points and 11 rebounds per game and also shot over 50 percent in fieldgoal accuracy. Such offensive talents elevated him to second place on Lee's all-time scoring list.

This was Larry's second consecutive year to earn the distinction of All-American and he is the only Viking ever to be chosen for the first team. Larry, along with Phil Bazel was also named to the All-SCAC squad.

admitted to SCAC

In only their second year of existence the Lee baseball team made a respectable showing against some formidable opponents, to show everyone that baseball has come to stay at Lee College.

In their first year of SCAC participation the Vikings had to open their season against the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga. To the surprise of many, Lee swept them in an opening-day double-header.

The young track team of Lee College demonstrated the maturing nature of Lee's athletic program this year by winning second place in the SCAC and eighth in the NCCAA. In their second year of organized intercollegiate competition the Lee netmen showed themselves to be an improved team. Behind the steady racquets of Bill Wilson (team captain) and Roger Vaughn (player-coach), the tennis players claimed victories in two out of their first three outings, one of which included a 7-2 drubbing of Tusculum.

Increasing their schedule from twelve to fourteen matches with the addition of Tennessee Wesleyan, the Lee tennismen contributed to the continued growth of the Lee athletic department.

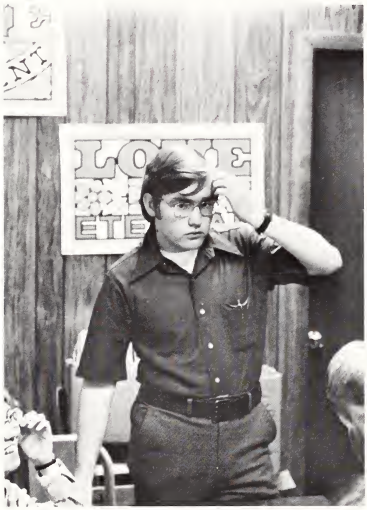
Organizations

Pioneers for Christ work year round...



Milton Carter served as a very dependable and determined president.

Pioneers for Christ has a daily ministry of personal evangelism. The largest club on the Lee campus, PFC sponsors a weekly prayer meeting and sends groups of ten to twenty members on week-end witnessing invasions to local churches and metropolitan areas. This year, 6 active teams ministered in 35 states in the Southeastern United States.

Every year teams travel more than 10,000 miles spreading the gospel of Christ. This summer four teams of volunteers will minister in mission states of the Church of God.

Charles Stott and Florie Brown pull out on their way to spread the Word of God.

PFC teams always have prayer before leaving on an invasion.

Diane Willis represented PFC in VINDAGUA's Parade of Favorites.

TACT "promotes" Christian Education

TACT, Training Association for Christian Teaching scheduled three weekend travel seminars and five local seminars on Christian Education. The club also sent a representative on most PFC witnessing invasions to train teachers. This provided a practical ministry experience for future Christian Education workers. The TACT team won first place in Rotaract's Derby Day as first-time participants.

Training Christian teachers is the main goal of T.A.C.T. members.

New teaching methods were discussed in club meetings.

Visual aids are very important in interesting lessons.

Reverend Zeno C. Tharp spoke to the association during Heritage Week.

Ministerial Association hosted guests

David Vanoy was the president of the Ministerial Association this year.

The Ministerial Association seeks to give practical experience and helpful instruction toward a successful ministry and to promote personal acquaintance and spiritual fellowship among ministerial students. Group activities included breakfasts, witnessing invasions, and a week-end retreat to Seviervilleand Gatlinburg. They also sponsored a joint seminar in the Spring with the Minister's Wives Club.

F. J. May spoke in a Fall meeting.

S.G.A. showed great increase

The Student Government Association of Lee College has seen great growth in campus interest under the leadership of Mike McMahan. Aside from diplomatic affairs involving student polls and open debates, the organization has provided a number of activities for the campus. Notable among these were the Fifties Day festivities in the Fall, an open air concert, the lighting of the official campus Christmas tree, and the provision of many films for students to enjoy in the auditorium.

Many students turned out for the Christmas tree lighting.

Fifties Day caught the attention of the entire campus.

in campus activities

President Mike McMahan addressed the student body on several occasions.

Wade Easom sang for S.G.A. chapel program.

An outdoor concert at the beginning of the year started things rolling.

in performing skills

The Fall Music Festival was just one of the Singers' on-campus engagements.

Small groups are often featured for special events.

The best in musical ability was exhibited by the 1976 Lee Singers. This quality, although typical of the group, is met with renewed enthusiasm whenever the choir performs.

The Lee Singers capped off another outstanding year with two memorable appearances in Washington, D.C. In January, the group performed at the Kennedy Center, one of America's most prestigious concert halls, in a National Bicentennial salute to Tennessee music. The Singers returned to the nation's capital in April to film a television special for the Church of God radio and TV department.

The Ladies of Lee prepare for...

The Ladies of Lee, the school's female touring group, will conclude a successful year in May by traveling overseas to carry the gospel in song to seven different European countries. This second tour abroad will reach into Austria, Germany, the Netherlands, Italy, Switzerland, and France.

The Ladies toured on weekends to several states, including Arkansas, Virginia, Connecticut, and Maryland. They also participated in the Fall and Spring Music Festivals on campus.

Mr. Jerry Long conducted the band in another successful year.

Lee Band demonstrates musical precision

The Lee College Band actually consists of two separate groups. The Concert Band is the largest group and performs frequently at on-campus functions.

The other group, the Lee Players, is an active touring band that just got started in full force this year. The Players have made several tours this term and have visited locations in Pennsylvania, Ohio, West Virginia, Virginia, Georgia, and Florida. They also have a Florida-Alabama tour planned for this summer.

Both bands are directed by Mr. Jerry Long.

Instrumental expertise is exhibited by band members.

The Concert Band performed on many special occasions.

Campus Choir gained new momentum

The Campus Choir, directed by Dr. Jim Burns, is the largest musical performing group on campus. It is composed of students from all major areas of study and is not limited by audition.

The choir does not tour, but rather directs its abilities towards performances on campus. This year saw three major performances by the Campus Choir. "What Is Man?" and "Beginnings" were two of their outstanding performances.

Dr. Jim Burns directed the Campus Choir with a spirit of enthusiasm.

Performances by the Campus Choir included a special musical narrative for Sunday night chapel.

Phi Beta Lambda emphasizes business

Reuben Williams was president of the Theta Gamma chapter of Phi Beta Lambda, a national organization for students having an interest in business. Activities are designed to develop qualities necessary for effective participation in business, professional, and community life. Throughout the year the club hosted many guest speakers, including some of the most prominent businessmen in the area.

Phi Sigma Alpha trains secretaries

Phi Sigma Alpha, an organization for Secretarial Science majors, again sponsored registration for Homecoming and Lee Day activities. Members also hosted a tea for full-time secretaries on campus during National Secretary Week.

many activities for students

Roy Stone was the auctioneer for Chi's "Miss Pie" auction during Freshman Week.

Alpha Gamma Chi sponsored many campus events this year, beginning with Freshman Week activities that included a rush party, watermelon bust, and skating party. An arm-wrestling contest was scheduled in mid-fall. Special entertainment by Carol and Flynn Johnson and Chi members highlighted another memory-packed moonlight cruise down the Tennessee River. The men co-sponsored a Valentine Banquet with the ladies of Delta Zeta Tau. Club members also participated in a weekend witnessing invasion to Dublin, Virginia in the Spring.

Ladies of Delta Zeta Tau serve campus and community

Bob Herron tries the rope walk at DZ's Halloween Carnival.

Members of Delta Zeta Tau, the oldest women's organization on campus, completed the year with successful involvement, beginning with a Welcome Punch Party for freshmen girls and ending with M.E.N.C. Musicale participation. Other activities included a Fall picnic at Harrison Bay State Park, a Halloween Carnival, Thanksgiving baskets for needy families, and a Valentine Banquet, co-sponsored with Alpha Gamma Chi. The ladies also served as hostesses for the faculty Christmas party and for a reception for visiting varsity coaches. They also ushered in chapel and presented a Bicentennial chapel in the Spring.

President Denise Willetts represented the club in the VINDAGUA Parade of Favorites, and won first runner-up.

Sigma ladies perform with friends at the Fall Fashion Show.

A Fall Fashion Show was the major activity sponsored by the ladies of Sigma Nu Sigma. The women in blue also sponsored a booth for Homecoming and Lee Day. A mini beauty pageant was presented as their act in the MENC Musicale. Members served as hostesses for the Faculty Christmas Party and the Lee Day Banquet.

The greased pole on Sadie Hawkins Day proved to be a real challenge.

Upsilon Xi promoted service and academics

The men of Lee's oldest social organization, Upsilon Xi, sponsored a major campus-wide event each semester. In the Fall the men in black hosted the annual Sadie Hawkins Day, complete with hayride. A concert with the nationally-known Archers was presented in April. Again, the men published a devotional booklet, Reflections, for Fall and Spring Convocations. This year, one-fifth of the first semester members posted perfect 4.0 academic averages, continuing a longstanding hallmark of promoting scholarship and academic excellence.

As long as Valerie doesn't get Jim's dolly, he doesn't have to pay for the hayride.

Rotaract men stimulate action

The Rotaract Club of Lee College is a collegiate extension of Rotary International. Rotaract again sponsored Derby Day activities in the Fall. Members also worked with their Rotaract II sisters in the local March of Dimes and Heart Fund campaigns. Spring semester saw enactment of the club's first formal initiation, including "Service Day" to provide campus participation and club service.

The men presented an original musical to win top honors in the MENC Musicale.

K'ettes have tradition of service

A yearly project of the K'ettes is to sponsor the Red Cross Bloodmobile on campus. Working with the local Kiwanis Club, these ladies are of service to campus and community. Members served as usherettes for Sunday night chapel for a month in Fall, and in Spring presented a program at the Little People's Church in Cleveland. They sponsored a haunted house for the Halloween Carnival and participated in Derby Day activities. A highlight of the year was a day of fun and fellowship at the Church of God Home for Children in Sevierville in March.

Brenda Willingham, who served as president, was the only charter member that was still in active participation.

The American Red Cross Bloodmobile is sponsored yearly by K'ettes.

K'ettes designed a spook house for the Halloween Carnival.

Circle K renews program

Circle K, sponsored by the local Kiwanis Club, was reactivated this year with Eddie Miller serving as president. The object of the club is to be of service to school and community, acting through its sponsoring organization as a liaison between local business, civic, and professional leaders.

Campus activities included a skating party, an outdoor concert, and a pre-convocation evangelism rally.

Eddie Miller (president) discusses the semester's schedule at a club meeting.

Rotaract II grew with second year

Ladies of Rotaract II sang for the elderly at local nursing homes.

Rotaract II, the sister club to Rotaract, completed its second year of service by again helping with the March of Dimes Mothers' March and the Heart Fund Drive. They also added a service to the elderly in the community and an Easter project to aid needy families. Members served as usherettes for chapel during the month of February.

Alpha Chi recognizes top scholars

This year Phillip Thomas has led Alpha Chi, Lee's national honor scholarship society, in the promotion and recognition of scholarship on campus. Students from all academic areas of study are eligible for participation. Membership is limited to those students in the top ten percent of the junior and senior classes, with an overall 3.4 average required for continuing membership.

The club was represented this March at the regional convention in Atlanta.

President Phil Thomas typifies the academic excellence of Alpha Chi members.

Pi Delta Omicron emphasizes Biblical scholarship

Academic excellence in Biblical Education is a requisite to membership in Pi Delta Omicron, a religious honor society. The purpose of the club is to develop Christian character through the promotion of scholarship, the cultivation of responsibility, and a spirit of fellowship.

Art Guild has first semester.

The Art Guild began functioning actively in January. Members meet weekly to work on crafts. So far they have held classes in macrame' and ceramics with various expert instructors in each craft. They also planned for museum tours to Atlanta, Knoxville, and Chattanooga. Greta Roberts served as president of the Guild and John Simmons was the faculty sponsor.

Music majors develop in MENC

Johnny Bunn (vice president) performed at the M E N C Winter Musicale.

The highlight of the year for the Music Educator's National Conference, a preprofessional organization for music majors, was the Winter Musicale. Acts were presented by different clubs on campus. Another major event was a Bell Choir concert in the Spring. Joni Shambach was president of the club for the 1975-'76 school term.

Missions Club supports World Missions

In an effort to promote interest in all phases of missions, the Missions Club sponsored two Involvement Rallies during the Spring semester. Members also sponsored a 10-mile walkathon to raise money for missions. Walter Hall led all club activities.

President Walter Hall directed an active year.

Participants in the Missions Club Walkathon were just getting warmed up when they reached Tomlinson College.

International Club allows cultural exchange

The purpose of the International Club is to provide for all international students a fellowship for self-expression, to develop leadership and initiative, and to provide for cultural exchange.

Members represent the Bahama Islands, Africa, India, Korea, Germany, Chile, France, Puerto Rico, Indonesia, and England.

Reverend S. E. Arnold led the club as president.

Students from all over the world are able to share their lives at regular meetings.

Spanish Club studies language and culture

Mitzi Dunn (president) won the Language Departmental Award.

A club to promote an understanding of the Spanish speaking people, the Spanish Club was led this year by senior Mitzi Dunn. The club consists of individuals interested in the Spanish language and culture. Activities included meetings with Spanish culture emphasis and publication of an academic Spanish newspaper.

The 1976 VINDAGUA

The 1976 VINDAGUA is the product of much work by many people. Foremost among these was the editor of the yearbook, David Bruce Conn. He was assisted by four Section Editors. They were Carolyn Cagle, Claudia Waites, Rick Moore, and David Lauster. Steve Rathbone (first semester) and David Rathbone (second semester) acted as Directors of Photography. They were aided by Robin Vest, Randy Hamilton, Kathy Baker, David Coxton, and Tom Sells. Lisa Lovinggood did the bulk of secretarial work and Gail Hanson was the Copy Editor.

Besides producing a yearbook, the VINDAGUA staff presented the annual Parade of Favorites and sponsored an intramural ball team.

CLARION informs students of current events

The CLARION is the official newspaper of Lee College. It is published periodically to inform the student body on matters of community concern.

After the resignation of Paulette Davis first semester, the paper was placed under the editorship of Rick Moore. By his efforts the paper was released in three editions during the Spring semester.

At the change of the semester, the faculty sponsorship also changed hands. Ruth Crawford was succeeded here by Dr. Charles Paul Conn.

Paulette Davis writes a short editorial.

TRUE GREATNESS

C. E. Flynn

A man is as great as the dreams he dreams, As great as the love he bears, As great as the values he redeems, And the happiness he shares. A man is as great as the thoughts he thinks, As the worth he has attained, As the fountains at which his spirit drinks, And the insight he has gained. A man is as great as the truth he speaks, As great as the help he gives, As great as the destiny he seeks, As great as the life he lives.

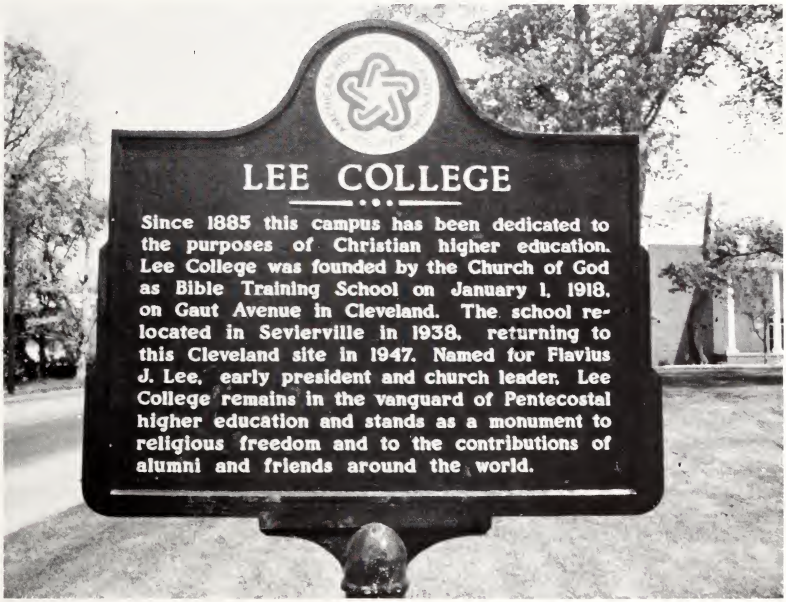
Lee College declared Bicentennial Campus



Congresswoman Marilyn Lloyd visited Lee College on April 22, 1976 to declare the school an official Bicentennial Campus. It is one of a relatively few institutions to gain such recognition. Notice of this distinction is made by the placement of a historical marker, the flying of the official Bicentennial flag, and the display of the Bicentennial Certificate of Official Recognition.

The Reader
1976 VINDAGUA
Lee College
Cleveland, TN 37311

Dear Reader:

This is the 1976 VINDAGUA that you ordered at the beginning of the year. It's contents record the activities of Lee College for the 1975-'76 school term. It has been compiled through the determined efforts of many persons. Editorial and photographic work was done chiefly by students at Lee College. The book was printed at the Church of God Publishing House where Charles McKinney devoted many hours to it's preparation for the presses. For his willingness to work with the VINDAGUA staff, I could never be overly thankful.

Dr. Charles Paul Conn, the faculty sponsor for the yearbook, has been of great help in an advisory capacity. His knowledge of journalistic style and method has greatly increased the efficiency of the yearbook staff.

Lastly, I must mention Dr. Ralph E. Williams, to whom the 1976 VINDAGUA is dedicated. His support through the years has meant a great deal to Lee College. Without men of his stature backing the college administration, our excellent institutional standards could never be realized.

With these credits in mind, I trust that you will enjoy your copy of the 1976 VINDAGUA.

May God richly bless you.

Sincerely,

David Bruce Conn
